

Zero Net Check Report

Following each payroll run (regular and off-cycle), a report will be produced that lists all employees with a zero net check. The payroll branch consultants will review the reports and notify agencies of employees with zero net checks, and the agency HR Administrators will need to print remittance statements for these employees and forward them to the employees.